KITCHEN STYLES

for everyday living.

The kitchen is more than a place to prepare meals, it's a central hub of connection, creativity and everyday ritual. From clean lines to layered textures, thoughtful lighting to statement tapware, today's kitchens bring together style and substance in equal measure.

At Webb & Brown-Neaves, this philosophy is brought to life through a premium base specification, carefully curated finishes and a deep understanding of how people live.

Enjoy this curated lookbook as inspiration for your own Webb & Brown-Neaves.

The Island BENCH

More than a feature, the island is the anchor of the modern kitchen. It's where meals are prepped, conversations start, and family gathers. Designed with generous proportions and refined finishes, a WB island bench balances utility with sculptural appeal, creating a statement that's equally social and functional.

The SCULLERY

Hidden from view but essential to flow, the scullery is where organisation meets style. Whether used for food prep, storage, or keeping your main kitchen pristine while entertaining, this hardworking zone adds depth and flexibility to your space. A WB scullery is designed to be just as refined as the kitchen itself, complete with stone benchtops, integrated shelving, and seamless access.
